DRAFT

Dear Mr. Price:

The Crusade for Freedom has long enlisted my support. Together with Radio Free Europe and the Free Europe Committee, these organizations provide the peoples of eastern Europe with truth which is basic to the building of a just and peaceful world.

Through the Crusade for Freedom millions of our citizens have voluntarily helped to finance Radio Free Europe's broadcasts. The stirring events of the last year are proof that the spirit of freedom is alive in the hearts of peoples everywhere and receptive to the message of Radio Free Europe.

I am glad to learn you have accepted the national chairmanship of the 1958 Crusade for Freedom. Now, in asking others to assist you, I hope you will tell them of my deep and continuing interest in the Crusade, a private enterprise which serves the cause of freedom with truth and power.

With warm regard,

Sincerely,

Mr. Gwilym A. Price

Dear Mr. Price (Bill):

Ever since their founding several years ago I have been an enthusiastic supporter of Radio Free Europe, the Free Europe Committee, and the Crusade for Freedom. These organizations work together to provide the oppressed peoples of eastern Europe with the unbiased truth. It is essential that this work continue.

Through the Crusade for Freedom millions of private American citizens have helped to finance Radio Free Europe's broadcasts. The stirring events of the last year stand as proof that the same spirit of freedom which is the basis of our free society is alive in the hearts of the captive peoples. Radio Free Europe assures these people of our belief in their cause.

It gives me great satisfaction that you have accepted the national chairmanship of the 1958 Crusade for Freedom. I know that you will make the same effective contribution as did the distinguished predecessors in the chairmanship, Henry Ford II and Eugene Holman. In asking others to assist you, you may tell them of my deep and continuing interest in the Crusade as a private enterprise which has so valuably served the cause of the free world.

With my grateful thanks and warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

s/Dwight D. Eisenhower

Dear Gene:

As you know, the Free Europe Committee, the Crusade for Freedom, and Radio Free Europe constitute a group of activities that I have enthusiastically supported since their inception some years ago. I have just heard that you have indicated a possible willingness to head up the Crusade for Freedom Drive for another year. I sincerely hope you will find your way clear to do so.

Just at this moment, when developments on the other side of the Iron Curtain clearly show that the yearning for freedom remains alive and vibrant, it is particularly important that the Crusade continue its effective work. For maximum usefulness, wide contributions by American citizens and American enterprise are essential in this work.

The list of those whom you would propose to associate with you in this work has been shown me. In inviting them to do so, I trust that you will tell them of the deep and continuing interest I take in the Crusade for Freedom because of its proven value to this country and the free world.

With my grateful thanks and warm personal regard,

Sincerely,

Eugene Holman, Esq.

Mr. Rhoads outlined the new plan employed this year by the Federal Government to combine the solicitation of the Federal Agencies and employees in the United States and overseas.

Mr. Patterson called on Mr. Rhoads, who stated Crusade must increase it's paid part-time State Campaign Directors because of the stiff competition of other soliciting organizations, and the trend towards the reduction of larger donations.

Mr. Patterson told of the October Munich Trip which will cost $28,055 as compared with $29,500 in 1956; briefly described the 1958 Campaign film to be made in Munich, and touched on films to develop a more effective speakers bureau.
